

“Dancers of the Universe” Integral Systemic Work according to the ‘Reconstructive®’ Method with Carola Castillo

With her ‘Reconstructive’® Method, Carola Castillo has created new ways in systemic work. Constellation work is expanded with elements of psychology, communication, body-mind awareness and meditation. She connects the Wisdom of ancient cultures and of shamanic medicine with aspects of Hellinger’s Family Constellations.

This retreat focuses on all men and woman who are willing to dance the dynamics of life with all its facets. How am I on my way with me, with my partner, with the small and the big family, what does life want from me??

No previous experience necessary, course language is English with German translation.

Carola Castillo was born in Venezuela. She is a facilitator, shaman, coach for the soul, international speaker and author. She teaches at the ‘Florida Institute of Complementary and Alternative Medicine’. She is founder of several Hellinger Institutes in North and South America and of the ‘Reconstructive International Integrative Holistic School’. She gives seminars, conferences and workshops in Latin America, USA, Canada, and Europe. Her Books are available on Amazon or the AppStore. Videos, Interviews and written texts of her can be found on YouTube and Twitter.
